

VIDEOCLUB
of LAGUNA WOODS

GENERAL MEETING
ON

A Brief Venture into the World of Stop-Motion Animation

John Glassco

Video Club 2021 Goldie Winner for his animated "Lego Houdini"

Open free on Thursday,
March 18, 2021

7:00 pm – followed by Audience Q&A

Click here to view John's full 10-minute "Lego Houdini" video on the Video Club's YouTube channel (on which his Goldie-winning video was based).
YouTube link: <https://youtu.be/dampHMnQYJw>.

John will share parts of his winning 4-minute video and comment on how he made it and where the ideas came from.

John Glassco is a retired Pathologist/Molecular Oncologist who practiced in the San Fernando Valley and was a Senior Attending Physician at UCLA. He got into animation in 1970-71 when he and his creative partner decided to experiment with stop-motion animation, later forming Paraglass Productions.

John spent years in the Entertainment Industry as a medical/science consultant for motion pictures and television and was the principle medical consultant for the Star Trek TV shows starting from the 7th season of Next Generation through the last episode of Voyager. He worked on such TV shows and films as the CBS series The Passage (2019) and City of Angels (1998) with Nicholas Cage and Meg Ryan. He has produced several documentaries including a four part miniseries on travel to Austria and one on outdoor filming locations for the movie Sound of Music (1965). He is currently working on a documentary about Beethoven.

Photo of John taken on the set of "Star Trek Deep Space Nine," where he was a consultant.

John joined the Video Club "for the purpose of keeping my hand in this wonderful creative art" and has "truly enjoyed working on the 'Beyond the Gates' TV show as a photographer and Segment Producer."

For a link to attend, send your name, email, and phone number to videocluboflagunawoods@gmail.com.

*For more information, contact Club President Steve Carman, steve.carman@mac.com, 424-254-6583.
See full information about Video Club activities on our website: videocluboflagunawoods.com*